Mr Scott

CONFIDENTIAL BULLETIN

OHIO SELECT LIST

of Daily Newspapers

VOL. 9 FEBRUARY 21, 1914 NO. 8

OFFICERS AND DIRECTORS.

Malcolm Jennings, president, Harrison building, Columbus, Ohio.

Louis H. Brush, vice-president, East Liverpool Review.

C. H. Spencer, secretary, Newark Advocate.

R. C. Snyder, treasurer, Norwalk, Reflector-Herald.

John T. Mack, director, Sandusky Register.

L. A. Culbertson, director, Mt. Vernon Republican-News.

W. O. Littick, director, Zanesville Times-Recorder.

Advertising Representatives.

Robert Tomes, eastern representative, 116 Nassau St., N. Y.

Allen & Ward, western representatives, 123 West Madison street, Chicago, Ill.

QUITS THE AGE.

Arthur L. Moore, president and general manager of the Coshocton Age, will sever his connection with the Age about March 1. Mr. J. F. Meek is editor of the Age. Mr. Moore, who is well known to many members of the List, is open for a proposition as business or advertising manager. His address is 142 North Second street, Coshocton, O.

COSHOCTON MEMBER.

Fred S. Wallace, editor and general manager of the Tribune, the List's new member at Coshocton, was ill and consequently unable to attend the List's meeting in Columbus on Thursday.

A. A. A. EXAMINER.

The A. A. A. examiner who has been investigating the circulation of papers in Zanesville, is in Coshocton this week He first visited the Age, on Wednesday went to the Tribune and on Thursday examined the Coshocton Times. The Tribune advises the Bulletin that the examiner gave the Tribune a clean bill of health, his report showing the Tribune has 100 more subscribers than the Tribune gave itself in its semi-annual report to the government.

YOU NEED A MAN?

One who can take charge of your advertising department and make it grow faster. AN ADVERTISING MAN with experience, initiative and reliability. This I have to offer to the publisher who can use the services of a trained ADVERTISING MAN with ability to write copy and devise and execute practical sales methods. THIS ADVERTISEMENT is directed to any executive who has an opening, or to the few who are always ready to MAKE an opening for such a man. Address, T. A. Brown, care of Marion, O., Tribune, Marion, O. 2-21-2t*

A. N. P. A. BUREAU.

I noticed in the last Bulletin of the Select List certain questions as to why we are subscribers to the Bureau of Advertising of the A. N. P. A.

To be frank about the matter it is somewhat of a question in my mind, other than that we felt that they were endeavoring to do a most commendable work in behalf of daily newspapers and that they deserve support. We pay $50 a year and receive in return a little bulletin, weekly, giving us ideas on special stunts, what foreign advertisers are