One Order, One Bill, One Check

Ohio's newspapers and their websites are the primary local news and shopping information sources for most Ohio adults. At AdOhio, our mission is to make it extremely easy and affordable to reach local audiences with the product mix that makes the most sense for the advertiser.

Those options include everything from display and targeted preprint advertising, to sticky notes, Web banner ads and rich media, including video. We aggregate hundreds of daily, weekly, metropolitan, and community newspapers and their local news sites into convenient media networks for advertisers to use.

The easiest way to place newspaper advertising — in print or online!

About the Ohio Newspaper Association

Now in its 83nd year of serving the state, the Ohio Newspaper Association represents more than 250 Ohio newspapers, including all paid daily and nearly all paid weekly newspapers in print and in digital formats. ONA administers a full program of member services that include: government relations and lobbying efforts, publication printing and distribution, state and national training seminars, employee development, legal assistance, insurance availability and advertising services.

About AdOhio

A wholly-owned subsidiary of ONA, AdOhio works with regional and national clients, including individual businesses and agencies with campaign budget and advertising placement assistance. With a guaranteed one-order, one-invoice service, AdOhio will complete needed quantitative research; obtain aggressive print and digital quotes; place individual orders with selected newspapers or websites; issue one itemized and collective invoice; provide proof of publication; and will then distribute collected funds to the selected media. As a benefit to our membership and in promotion of the print and digital newspaper industry, AdOhio is the only authorized Ohio organization that has the ability to place advertising for regional or even national buys. The ONA division places display, classified, public notice, preprint, sticky-note and digital advertising and can also satisfy commercial print needs for single sheet and web production.
